

The Museumsinsel Lüttenheid with the Heider Heimat Museum and the Klaus-Groth-Museum.

For our guests we offer changing special exhibitions and culture presentations.

Our Museumsinsel will be advanced step by step so that our visitor's journey can always go on.

Because of redevelopment works the Klaus-Groth-Museum is closed at the moment. For the support of those restoration works the „Verein der Freunde und Förderer des Klaus-Groth-Museums-Heide“ was founded.

The Museumsinsel Lüttenheid with the Heider Heimat Museum and the Klaus-Groth-Museum.

Lüttenheid 40
25746 Heide
Tel.: 0481/63742

opening hours

Tue-Thu	11.30 - 17.00 h
Fri	11.30 - 14.00 h
Sat	14.00 - 17.00 h
Sun	11.30 - 17.00 h

admissions

adults	2,50 €
family card	4,50 €
students	1,00 €
children up to 5 years	free

guided tours

groups	30,00 € + 1,50 €
school classes	20,00 € + 0,50 €

An excursion into history

The Museumsinsel Lüttenheid with the Heider Heimatmuseum and the Klaus-Groth-Museum.

An excursion into history.

The Museumsinsel Lüttenheid with the Heider Heimatmuseum and the Klaus-Groth-Museum invite the visitor for a little journey through the history of Heide.

You will find illustrative information from the time of the Republic till the present in the renewed buildings of the Alte Schmiede and the Pferdestall.

The Museumsinsel Lüttenheid with the Heider Heimatmuseum and the Klaus-Groth-Museum.

The excursion into the history of Heide starts in the time of the Republic which brought political and economic growth to Heide

◀ The visitor can find the importance which trade had for Heide as a central main place for Dithmarschen.

In 1841 there were about 180 shoemakers in Heide giving the Schuhmacherort its name. ▶

The museum invites the visitor to have a view of the history of Heide in all the rooms.

Here you can find the fashion of different centuries.

You can find the tools of a goldsmith in an entire-furnished workshop.